PRESS RELEASE

asapm® Young Crew Announces New Members of the Executive Board of Directors

Fairfax, VA - May 18, 2009: The American Society for the Advancement of Project Management (asapm®) Young Crew is pleased to announce the results of its 2009 Executive Board of Directors elections, naming three project professionals to leadership positions within the organization. The asapm® Young Crew Executive Board of Directors will be responsible for providing strategic direction and thought leadership for the implementation of the asapm® Young Crew in the United States. Over the next three to six months, the board will be reviewing the National Young Crew Roadmap and evaluating the Young Crew Maturity Model to ensure complete implementation and success of the organization.

asapm® Young Crew Executive Board of Directors 2009-2011

The newly elected members of the asapm® Young Crew Executive Board of Directors who will assume office as of May 18, 2009 are as follows:

President

Jhaymee S. Wilson, CAPM®, PMP®, IPMA-D™
CACI International

Vice President – Communications and Marketing

Sloane Whiteley, PMP®
Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC)

Vice President – Membership and Outreach

Leah Bussert, PMP®
Project Performance Corporation (PPC)

The Executive Board of Directors will be working in concert with asapm®, IPMA, and the asapm® Young Crew Core Team to build partnerships with leading organizations within the project management industry, and to develop a comprehensive membership program that will add significant value for young project managers. As we move forward with our official launch of the asapm® Young Crew, we encourage all Young Crews and members of both asapm® and IPMA to support our efforts by following us on Twitter at www.twitter.com/asapmyoungcrew, and by also joining our LinkedIn Group (asapm Young Crew).

We welcome our supporters to extend congratulations via email to YoungCrew@asapm.org.
